(q) To be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, enterprise or venture.

(r) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect its purposes.

... the purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To acquire by purchase, subscription, contract, or otherwise, and to hold for investment or otherwise, to sell, discount or rediscount, exchange, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, and generally to deal in and with all forms of securities including, but not by way of limitation, shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, notes, scrip, mortgages, and choses in action of all kinds, both as principal and as agent, and while the holder thereof, to exercise all the rights and privileges of ownership the same as may be permitted to natural persons, including the right to vote thereon.

To consult with, promote and assist, financially or otherwise, corporations, firms, syndicates, associations, individuals, and others and to give any guaranty in connection therewith or otherwise for the payment of money or for the performance of any other undertaking or obligation.

The corporation hereby formed shall have power to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire by bequest, devise, gift, or other means, and to hold, own, manage, or develop, and to mortgage, hypothecate, deed in trust, sell, convey, exchange, option, subdivide, or otherwise dispose of real and personal property of every class and description and any estate or interest therein, as may be necessary or convenient for the proper conduct of the affairs of the corporation, without limitation as to amount or value, in any of the states, districts, or territories of the United States, and in any and all foreign countries, subject to the laws of any such states, districts, territories, or countries.

To do all and everything necessary, suitable, or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, the attainment of any of the objects, or the exercise of any of the powers herein set forth, either alone or in conjunction with other corporations, firms, or individuals, and either as principals or agents, and to do every other act or acts, thing or things, incidental or appurtenant to or growing out of or connected with the above-mentioned objects, purposes, or powers.

FIFTH. Provisions (if any) dealing with the preemptive right of shareholders pursuant to §7-1.1-24 of the General Laws, 1955, as amended;

Any stockholder including the heirs, assigns, executors or administrators of a deceased stockholder, desiring to sell or transfer any stock of this corporation shall first offer such stock to the Corporation through its Board of Directors at not more than the book value of such stock as shown upon a financial statement of the Corporation to be drawn as of the first of the month preceding the offer, provided, however, that the Corporation shall exercise its right to purchase within thirty (30) days after the Stockholder shall have notified it in writing of his desire to sell said shares, and if the Corporation shall decide to purchase said shares, such Stockholder shall, upon the proper tender of the price thereof, transfer to the Corporation his shares so sold, and if the Corporation shall elect not to purchase said shares within thirty (30) days, then such Stockholder may at any time after the expiration of said thirty (30) days, sell such shares to any other party, but not at less than the price at which the same was offered to this Corporation.

FOURTH. The aggregate number of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue is:

(a) If only one class: Total number of shares 600

(If the authorized shares are to consist of one class only, state the par value of such shares or a statement that all of such shares are to be without par value.)

Common Stock - No Par Value

or

(b) If more than one class: Total number of shares _____

(State (A) the number of the shares of each class thereof that are to have a par value and the par value of each share of each such class, and/or (B) the number of such shares that are to be without par value, and (C) a statement of all or any of the designations and the powers, preferences and rights, including voting rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, which are permitted by the provisions of title 7 of the General Laws in respect of any class or classes of stock of the corporation and the fixing of which by the articles of association is desired, and an express grant of such authority as it may then be desired to grant to the board of directors to fix or vote or votes any thereof that may be desired but which shall not be fixed by the articles.)

FIFTH. Provisions (if any) dealing with the preemptive right of shareholders pursuant to §7-1.1-24 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended:

SIXTH. Provisions (if any) for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation:

To guarantee any bonds, securities or evidences of indebtedness created by or dividends on or certain amount per share in liquidation of the capital stock of any other corporation or corporations created by this state or by any other state, country, nation or government, provided such other corporation is formed for purposes similar to the purposes of this corporation or is engaged in the same or a substantially similar business or transacts business with this corporation or is owned or controlled by the same or substantially similar interests; but nothing herein contained shall authorize this corporation to carry on the business of a surety or indemnity company.

To guarantee in any way permitted by law the performance of any of the contracts or other undertakings in which the corporation may otherwise be or become interested, of any corporation, association, partnership, firm, trustee, syndicate, individual, government, state, municipality, or other political or governmental division or subdivision, domestic or foreign, insofar as may be permitted by law, AND/OR

To promote or assist financially or otherwise, corporations, syndicates, partnerships, trusts, trustees, individuals or associations of all kinds and to give any guarantee in connection therewith for the payment of money or for the performance of any obligation or undertaking.

SIXTH-A. The corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless each person who shall serve at any time hereafter as a director or officer of the corporation from and against any and all claims and liabilities to which such person shall become subject by reason of his having heretofore or hereafter been a director or officer of the corporation, or by reason of any action alleged to have been heretofore or hereafter taken or omitted by him as such director or officer, and shall reimburse each such person for all legal and other expenses reasonably incurred by him in connection with any such claim or liability; provided, however, that no such person shall be indemnified against or be reimbursed for, any expense incurred in connection with any claim or liability arising out of his own negligence or willful misconduct.

The rights accruing to any person under the foregoing provisions of this article shall not exclude any other right to which he may be lawfully entitled, nor shall anything herein contained restrict the right of the corporation to indemnify or reimburse such person in any proper case even though not specifically herein provided for. The corporation, its directors, officers, employees, and agents shall be fully protected in taking any action or making any payment under this article, or in refusing so to do, in reliance upon the advice of counsel.
