- (m) To make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific or educational purposes.
- (n) To transact any lawful business which the board of directors shall find will be in aid of governmental authority.
- (o) To pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit-sharing plans, stock bonus plans, stock option plans and other incentive plans for any or all of its directors, officers and employees.
- (p) To provide insurance for its benefit on the life of any of its directors, officers, or employees, or on the life of any stockholder for the purpose of acquiring at his death shares of its stock owned by such stockholder.
- (q) To be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, enterprise or venture.
- (r) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect its purposes.

FOURTH. The aggregate number of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue is:

(a) If only one class: Total number of shares 1,000....

(If the authorized shares are to consist of one class only, state the par value of such shares or a statement that all of such shares are to be without par value.)

Common; - without par value or

(b) If more than one class: Total number of shares

(State (A) the number of the shares of each class thereof that are to have a par value and the par value of each share of each such class, and/or (B) the number of such shares that are to be without par value, and (C) a statement of all or any of the designations and the powers, preferences and rights, including voting rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, which are permitted by the provisions of title 7 of the General Laws in respect of any class or classes of stock of the corporation and the fixing of which by the articles of association is desired, and an express grant of such authority as it may then be desired to grant to the board of directors to fix by vote or votes any thereof that may be desired but which shall not be fixed by the articles.)

FIFTH. Provisions (if any) dealing with the preemptive right of shareholders pursuant to §7-1.1-24 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended:

Any shareholder, including the heirs, assigns, executors or administrators of a deceased shareholder, desiring to sell or transfer such shares owned by him or them, shall first offer it to the corporation, in the manner following:

He shall notify the corporation of his desire to sell or transfer by notice in writing, which notice shall contain the price at which he is willing to sell or transfer. The corporation shall within thirty days thereafter either accept or reject the offer, but if at the expiration of thirty days the corporation shall not have exercised the right so to purchase, the owner of such shares shall be at liberty to dispose of the same at a price not less than that offered to the corporation. No shares of stock shall be sold or transferred on the books of the corporation until these provisions have been complied with, but the shareholders may in any particular instance waive this requirement.

All unissued or treasury shares or securities convertible into shares shall first be offered to the shareholders by the corporation in the manner above provided.
