BUSINESS CORPORATION

ORIGINAL ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

The undersigned acting as incorporator(s) of a corporation under Chapter 7-1.1 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended, adopt(s) the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation:

FIRST. The name of the corporation is SQUARE ONE CORPORATION

(A close corporation pursuant to §7-1.1-51 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended) (strike if inapplicable)

SECOND. The period of its duration is (if perpetual, so state) perpetual THIRD. The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To engage in and carry on any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act, which shall include owning, buying, selling, leasing, managing and otherwise dealing in real estate and interests in real estate.

The corporation shall have power: (See §7-1.1-4 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended.)

- (a) To have perpetual succession by its corporate name unless a limited period of duration is stated in its articles of incorporation.
- (b) To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name.
- (c) To have a corporate seal which may be altered at pleasure, and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed or affixed or in any other manner reproduced.
- (d) To purchase, take, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use and otherwise deal in and with, real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated.
- (e) To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.
- (f) To lend money and to use its credit to assist its employees.
- (g) To purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, associations, partnerships or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district or municipality or of any instrumentality thereof.
- (h) To make contracts and guarantees and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchises, and income.
- (i) To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.
- (j) To conduct its business, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by this chapter, within or without this state.
- (k) To elect or appoint officers and agents of the corporation, and define their duties and fix their compensation.
- (l) To make and alter by-laws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the corporation.
- (m) To make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific or educational purposes.
- (n) To transact any lawful business which the board of directors shall find will be in aid of governmental authority.
- (o) To pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit-sharing plans, stock bonus plans, stock option plans and other incentive plans for any or all of its directors, officers and employees.
- (p) To provide insurance for its benefit on the life of any of its directors, officers, or employees, or on the life of any stockholder for the purpose of acquiring at his death shares of its stock owned by such stockholder.
- (q) To be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, enterprise or venture.
- (r) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect its purposes.

FOURTH. The aggregate number of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue is:

- (a) If only one class: Total number of shares 600
(If the authorized shares are to consist of one class only, state the par value of such shares or a statement that all of such shares are to be without par value.)

All such shares are to be without par value.

or

- (b) If more than one class: Total number of shares _____
(State (A) the number of shares of each class thereof that are to have a par value and the par value of each share of each such class, and/or (B) the number of such shares that are to be without par value, and (C) a statement of all or any of the designations and the powers, preferences and rights, including voting rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, which are permitted by the provisions of title 7 of the General Laws in respect of any class or classes of stock of the corporation and the fixing of which by the articles of association is desired, and an express grant of such authority as it may then be desired to grant to the board of directors to fix by vote or votes any thereof that may be desired but which shall not be fixed by the articles.)

FIFTH. Provisions (if any) dealing with the preemptive right of shareholders pursuant to §7-1.1-24 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended:

SIXTH. Provisions (if any) for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation:

SIXTH: The corporation and the other shareholders shall have the right prior to the transfer of shares of stock of any shareholder, whether during the lifetime or upon the death of a shareholder, to purchase said shares at the price hereinafter specified before the same shall be transferred to any other party. The shareholder (which term, as used herein, shall include his personal representative) shall give written notice to the corporation and to the other shareholders at least thirty (30) days prior to any transfer, setting forth the identity of the transferee and the terms of the proposed transfer. The corporation shall exercise its right to purchase within fifteen (15) days after such notice and if the corporation shall decide to purchase said shares, such shareholder shall, upon tender of the purchase price thereof, transfer to the corporation the shares so sold. If the corporation shall not elect to purchase said shares within the said fifteen (15) days, then the other shareholders shall have a further period of fifteen (15) days to exercise their right to purchase on the same terms. If more than one shareholder shall exercise his right to purchase, the shares shall be allocated between them on the basis of shares previously owned. If neither the corporation nor the other shareholders shall elect to purchase said shares, then such shareholder may, at any time within twenty (20) days after the expiration of said thirty (30) days, transfer said shares to the transferee named in said notice and in the case of a sale at not less than the price at which the same were offered to the corporation. The price at which the corporation and the other shareholders shall have a right to purchase shall be (a) in the case of a sale, the lowest price at which the shareholder proposes to sell to any other party, and (b) in the case of a gift, bequest or other transfer not involving a sale, the fair market value per share as determined by an arbitrator agreed upon by the parties and, in the absence of such agreement, pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association, then in effect.

(If this is a close corporation pursuant to §7-1.1-51 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended, state the name(s) and address(es) of the officers of the corporation.)
