FORM 203 - Revised: 08/2020

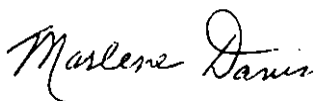

①

The Rhode Island Federation of Square and Round Dance Clubs has outlived its purpose. The original purpose was to communicate activities among member clubs, to clarify each clubs activities so to minimize duplication of dances and advertise activities to maximize participation and to offer group insurance. We are now down to two member clubs. And insurance is available through another organization.

Our treasury will be divided between the two remaining clubs equally. These being Swinging Squares and Town Howlers.

The board did not meet in person since before covid restrictions but voted via conference call that dissolution of the Federation is in best interest of the remaining members.
