Dear Friends of SKPR,

With the passing of the former Association President, Byron W. Cahoone Jr., it has been decided, and voted, by the remaining board members of the South Kingstown Dog Park Association, to dissolve the 501c3 entity. Although there is no formal association board, Bill Cummingz, is the acting President.

Elizabeth Kearns (VP), and David Cesaro (Treas), are the only original board members listed on the 501c3 legal document. Elizabeth Kearns, and David Cesaro, will no longer be involved with the business aspects of the SKDPA with the dissolution of the 501c3 entity. Mr. Cummingz has requested to not have his name listed on any legal documents pertaining to the park, and unable to fill all positions needed to hold the 501c3, dissolution is the best decision.

It is stated on the RI Articles of Dissolution for a Domestic Non-Profit Corporation form, that all assets shall be distributed to the Town of South Kingstown, Rhode Island, for the benefit of the South Kingstown dog park, or, to a 501c3 entity for the benefit of dogs.

The SKDP being owned and managed by the Town of South Kingstown, our wish would be to keep it within the SKPR Department of South Kingstown, to benefit the South Kingstown Dog Park. SKDPA 's function will continue to be supportive of the Parks and Recreation Department's management and stewardship of the property. We hope you will consider our request.

Thank you,

Elizabeth Kearns
