3. The specific purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

The purpose of our organization is to empower, support and promote the well-being and mental health of mothers and their families. We work to provide resources and tools that allow them to overcome challenges and promote a healthy, harmonious and balanced environment for their growth and development.

Our vision is to lead and promote the empowerment and well-being of mothers and their families. We seek to create a community where all mothers feel supported, valued and empowered, with access to services that promote their development and mental health, so that they can improve personal growth and that of their families

Our values are:

- 1. Empowerment: We believe in the power of inspiring mothers to transform their lives and those of their families. We promote autonomy, informed decision-making and the development of skills so that they can face challenges and reach their full potential.
- 2. Wellbeing: We value the comprehensive well-being of mothers and their families. We strive to provide resources and support that promote physical, emotional and mental health, encouraging a healthy balance in all areas of their lives.
- 3. Improvement: We promote personal improvement and continuous growth. We believe in the importance of providing learning and development opportunities for mothers to acquire knowledge and skills that allow them to effectively face challenges and achieve their goals.
- 4. Collaboration: We value collaboration and the creation of alliances with other organizations and key actors. We seek to work together to maximize our impact and offer quality services to mothers and their families.
- 5. Inclusion: We believe in the importance of diversity and inclusion. We strive to create a welcoming and safe environment for all mothers, regardless of their ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion or socioeconomic status.
