Amendment to Article IV of the Articles of Incorporation of The Redeemed Christian Church of God, Potters House. ID Number – 000567433

The Article IV of the articles of incorporation of The Redeemed Christian Church of God, Potters House is amended to include the following paragraph.

The Redeemed Christian Church of God, Potters House is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational purposes and qualifies as a tax-exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provisions of any future federal tax law including the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as Exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provisions of any future federal tax law.

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall benefit nor be distributed to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons except as permissible for the payment of reasonable compensation for services rendered and for making payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof.

No substantial part of the activities of this organization shall be carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the organization shall not participate in or intervene (including publishing or distributing of statement) in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any purpose not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from the federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code

The assets of the organization are irrevocably dedicated to religious and charitable purpose. In the event of the dissolution of this Church, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the organization, the remaining assets shall be distributed to one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

This clause ensures that upon dissolution, the remaining assets of the church are used in a manner consistent with its tax-exempt purposes and in compliance with IRS regulations. The specifics can be tailored to the organization's mission and operational specifics, but the key principle is that remaining assets must be used for tax-exempt purposes or distributed to another tax-exempt organization.
