The Christian Action Center, Inc. was incorporated in 1971 and for an unknown reason the group stopped filing annual reports starting in 1992, causing our incorporation status to be revoked. Recently, we decided to change our bank account to another bank. At that time we were told we needed to provide our incorporation documentation. We did not know what that was, but were told to contact the RI Office of the Secretary of State. When we did that, we were informed that our corporate status had been revoked.

We have since initiated a good faith effort, cooperating and taking steps to correct this oversight. This situation we are facing was festering well prior to the current board's involvement or knowledge. No one currently on the board had any idea that filing an annual report was required to maintain our incorporation status in the State of Rhode Island. Regrettably, a search of historical documentation for Community Action Center, Inc. did not yield documentation referencing the revocation or the names and addresses of previous Christian Action Center board members. Therefore, we are filing all the annual reports with the information that we do know based on the current board members.
