- II. (A) The members of the limited liability company may include provisions in the limited liability company's operating agreement with respect to its managers, members, agents, and/or employees (an "Indemnified Person"), for the purpose of indemnifying an Indemnified Person in the manner and to the extent permitted by and otherwise not inconsistent with the Act.

- (B) In addition to the authority conferred upon the members and managers of the limited liability company by the foregoing Paragraph (A), the members of the limited liability company may include provisions in the operating agreement for the purpose of indemnifying an Indemnified Person in the manner and to the extent provided herein.
  - (i) The operating agreement provisions or agreements authorized hereby may provide that the limited liability company shall, subject to the provisions of this Article Sixth II(B), pay, on behalf of an Indemnified Person any Loss or Expenses arising from any actual claim or claims which are made against the Indemnified Person (whether individually or jointly with other Indemnified Persons) by reason of any Covered Act of the Indemnified Person.
