TO CREDITORS AND OTHER PARTIES IN INTEREST

Re: Receivership of New England Medical Supply, Inc.
Providence County Superior Court Case No. P.C. 2015-3812

On October 19, 2015, the Rhode Island Superior Court sitting in Providence County (the "Court") entered an Order appointing the undersigned as Permanent Receiver of the assets of New England Medical Supply, Inc. ("NEMS").

A receivership is a state court insolvency proceeding. The Receiver is an Officer of the Court, appointed to represent the interests of all creditors and parties in interest. The Receiver has been appointed as a neutral, impartial Receiver, for the purpose of marketing, selling and otherwise liquidating the assets and business of NEMS, and if appropriate, continuing the business operations, all for the highest or best value, in order to maximize the overall recovery for all creditors. At this time, it appears that the only assets are the personal property and equipment located at 365 Eddy Street, Providence, Rhode Island.

In connection with the Receivership, pursuant to Paragraph 13 of the enclosed Receivership Notice, all creditors are enjoined and stayed from taking any action to enforce their claims against NEMS and/or its assets.

No claims will be approved and no distribution to creditors will take place in the Receivership case without notice first being provided to all creditors and other parties in interest who file a Proof of Claim with the Receiver, and then only after a hearing thereon before the Court.

To have your claim considered for approval and for a distribution thereon (should funds permit), all of which must first be approved by the Court, and to receive notice of proceedings in this Receivership case, you must timely file a Proof of Claim with the Receiver. To facilitate that, I am enclosing a Proof of Claim form for you to complete, execute before a Notary Public, and return to me. Please note that all claims must be filed with the Receiver on or before February 19, 2016.

In the meantime, if you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Linda Rekas Sloan
